GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. Use of Form 10-KSB.

This Form may be used by a "small business issuer," defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act, for its annual and transitional reports under section 13 or 15(d) of that Act. For further information as to eligibility to use this Form see Item 10(a) of Regulation S-B (17 CFR 228.10 et seq.). Annual reports on this form shall be filed within 90 days after the end of the fiscal year covered by the report. Transition reports shall be filed within the time period specified in Rules 13a-10 or 15d-10 of the Exchange Act (§§ 240.13a-10 or 240.15d-10 of this chapter).

B. Application of General Rules and Regulations.

The General Rules and Regulations under the Exchange Act (§240.0-1 et seq.), particularly Regulation 12B (§240.12b-1 et seq.) contain certain general requirements for reports on any form which should be carefully read and observed in the preparation and filing of reports on this Form.

C. Signature and Filing of Report.

1. File three “complete” copies and five “additional” copies of the registration statement with the Commission and file at least one complete copy with each exchange on which the securities will be registered. A “complete” copy includes financial statements, exhibits and all other papers and documents. An “additional” copy excludes exhibits. One of the copies filed with the Commission and each exchange should be manually signed; all other copies should have typed or printed signatures.
2. Who must sign. The small business issuer, its principal executive officer or officers, its principal financial officer, its controller or principal accounting officer and at least a majority of the board of directors or persons performing similar functions. If the small business issuer is a limited partnership, then the general partner and a majority of its board of directors if a corporation must sign the report. Any person who occupies more than one of the specified positions must indicate each capacity in which he or she signs the report. See Rule 12b-11 concerning manual signatures under powers of attorney.
3. Small business issuers are requested to indicate in a transmittal letter with the Form 10-KSB whether the financial statements in the report reflect a change from the preceding year in any accounting principles or practices or in the methods of application of those principles or practices.

D. Information as to Employee Stock Purchase, Savings and Similar Plans.

Separate annual and other reports need not be filed under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act for any employee stock purchase, savings or similar plan if the issuer of the securities offered under the plan furnishes to the Commission the information and documents specified in the Rule 15d-21 of the Exchange Act.

E. Information to be Incorporated by Reference.

1. Refer to Rule 12b-23 (§240.12b-23 of this chapter) if information will be incorporated by reference from other documents in answer or partial answer to any item of this Form.
2. The Information called for in Parts I and II of this Form, Items 1-8, may be incorporated by reference from:
 - (a) the registrant’s annual report to security holders furnished to the Commission under Rule 14a-3(b) or Rule 14c-3(a) of the Exchange Act (§§240.14a-3(b), 240.14c-3(a) of this chapter); or
 - (b) the registrant’s annual report to shareholders if it contains the information required by Rule 14a-3 (§240.14-3 of this chapter).

Note to electronic filers: If any information required by Part I or Part II is incorporated by reference from the annual report to security holders as allowed in General Instruction E.2.(a), any portion of the annual report to security holders incorporated by reference shall be filed as an exhibit in electronic format, as required by Item 601(b)(13) of Regulation S-B.

3. The information required by Part III may be incorporated by reference from the registrant’s definitive proxy statement (filed or to be filed in accordance with §240.14a-101, Schedule 14A) or definitive information statement (filed or to be filed pursuant to §240.14c-101, Schedule 14C) which involves the election of directors, if such definitive proxy or information statement is filed with the Commission not later than 120 days after the end of the fiscal year covered by this Form. If the definitive proxy or information statement is not filed within the 120-day period, the information called for in Part III information must be filed as part of the Form 10-KSB, or as an amendment to the Form 10-KSB, not later than the end of the 120-day period.
4. No item numbers or captions or items need be contained in the material incorporated by reference into the report. However, the registrant’s attention is directed to Rule 12b-23(b) of the Exchange Act (§240.12b-23(b)) regarding the specific disclosure required in the report concerning information incorporated by reference. When the registrant combines all of the information in Parts I and II of this Form by incorporation by reference from the registrant’s annual report to security holders and all of the information in Part III of this Form by incorporating by reference from a definitive proxy statement or information statement involving the election of directors, then this Form shall consist of the facing or cover page, those sections incorporated from the annual report to security holders, the proxy or information statement, and the information, if any, required by Part III of this Form, signatures and a cross-reference sheet setting forth the item numbers and captions in Parts I, II and III of this Form and page and/or pages in the referenced materials where the corresponding information appears.

F. Integrated Reports to Security Holders.

Annual reports to security holders may be combined with the required information of this Form and will be suitable for filing with the Commission if the following conditions are satisfied:

1. The combined report contains complete answers to all items required by Form 10-KSB. When responses to a certain item of required disclosure are separated within the combined report, an appropriate cross-reference should be made. If the information required by Part III of Form 10-KSB is omitted by virtue of General Instruction E, a definitive proxy or information statement shall be filed.
2. The cover page and required signatures are included. A cross-reference sheet should be filed indicating the location of information required by items of the Form.
3. If an electronic filer files any portion of an annual report to security holders in combination with the required information of Form 10-KSB, as provided in this instruction, only such portions filed in satisfaction of the Form 10-KSB requirements shall be filed in electronic format.

G. Omission of Information by Certain Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries

If, on the date of the filing of its report on Form 10-KSB, the registrant meets the conditions specified in paragraph (1) below, then it may furnish the abbreviated narrative disclosure specified in paragraph (2) below.

1. Conditions for availability of relief specified in paragraph (2) below.

 - (b) During the past thirty-six months and any subsequent period of days, there has not been any material default in the payment of principal, interest, a sinking or purchase fund installment, or any other material default not cured within thirty days, with respect to any indebtedness of the registrant or its subsidiaries, and there has not been any material default in the payment of rental under material long-term leases; and
 - (c) There is prominently set forth on the cover page of the Form 10-KSB, a statement that the registrant meets the conditions set forth in General Instruction G(1)(a) and (b) of Form 10-KSB and therefore filing this Form with the reduced disclosure format.
2. Registrants meeting the conditions specified in paragraph 1 above are entitled to the following relief:
 - (a) Such registrants may omit the information called for by Item 303(b), Management's Discussion and Analysis, if required by the Instruction to that Item, provided that the registrant includes in the Form 10-KSB a narrative analysis of the results of operations explaining the reasons for material changes in the amount of revenue and expense items between the most recent fiscal year presented and the fiscal year immediately preceding it. In addition, the analysis should include an explanation of the effect of any changes in accounting principles and practices or method of application that have a material effect on net income as reported.
 - (b) Such registrants may omit the list of subsidiaries exhibit required by Item 601 of Regulation S-B.
 - (c) Such registrants may omit the information called for by the following Items: Item 4, Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders; Item 10 Directors and Executive Officers, etc.; Item 11, Executive Compensation; Item 12, Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners, etc.; Item 13, Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

In calculating the $10,000,000 ceiling, issuers should include all offerings which were registered under the Securities Act, other than any amounts registered on Form S-8.
- b. A small business issuer may provide the information set forth under "Information Required in Annual Report of Transitional Small Business Issuers" until it (1) registers more than $10 million under the Securities Act in any continuous 12-month period (other than securities registered on Form S-8), (2) elects to file on a non-transitional disclosure document (other than the proxy statement disclosure in Schedule 14A), or (3) no longer meets the definition of small business issuer. Non-transitional disclosure documents include: (1) Securities Act registration statement forms other than Forms SB-1, S-3 (if the issuer incorporates by reference transitional Exchange Act reports), S-8 and S-4 (if the issuer relies upon the transitional disclosure format in that form); (2) Exchange Act periodic reporting Forms 10-K and 10-Q; (3) Exchange Act registration Form 10; and (4) reports or registration statements on Forms 10-KSB, 10-QSB or 10-SB which do not use the transitional disclosure document format. BANK'S $400M LOSS ON GAS BETS SINGES N.Y. FIRM

By RODDY BOYD

Good For Business

April 28, 2007 -- The Bank of Montreal's disclosure yesterday that it lost up to $400 million trading natural gas may prove to be very painful for a fast-growing commodity brokerage.

Valhalla, N.Y.-based Optionable - a brokerage whose technology enticed Nymex to take a 19 percent stake in the company - appears to be in danger of losing revenue from its biggest customer, the Bank of Montreal, as the bank reels from a giant portfolio valuation problem.

According to Optionable's 10-K filing, BMO accounted for 24 percent of its revenues last year. Investors took note of this, and sent Optionable's stock down $1.45, or almost 21 percent, to $5.56 yesterday.

While BMO will not end its generally lucrative energy trading operations, executives emphasized that it is pulling back on both the volume of trades and the appetite for risk.

The loss resulted from inaccurate valuations on the bank's large portfolio of natural gas options, BMO Chief Executive Officer Bill Downe said in a conference call.

Sources told The Post that the losses resulted from trades made in so-called out-of-the-money options that were not valued properly. Out-of-the-money refers to a price that is less favorable than what's currently available in the market, triggering a loss for an investor.

Sources said many of these trades were made by David Lee, a veteran gas trader at the bank.

While details of what happened remain sketchy, natural gas traders on and off the Nymex trading floor told The Post that BMO's problems were compounded by problematic valuations of their short positions in illiquid natural gas futures and options.

A Nymex floor-trading source said that BMO began unwinding its problematic natural gas trades on Thursday afternoon, but did not use Optionable.

A call to Lee was referred to a BMO spokeswoman, who declined to comment.

An Optionable spokesman said that the company would not have a comment until its earnings conference call on Tuesday.

An Optionable executive told The Post earlier this month that the company was trying to diversify its client base away from its heavy reliance on BMO.
